The petitioner was not represented by counsel and did not know of or understand the legal significance of the facts giving rise to the new claim at the time of the prior petition was filed. Petitioner is and was a layman at law and has no legal training in law.

U.S. Const. Amend. 1, 4, 5, 6, 8, 14.

N.C. Const. Art. 1 Sec. 19, 21, 23, 27.

Human Rights that are protected by said Constitutional Rights and By the American Convention on Human Rights.

The aforesaid as relates and applies and as may be applied to, inmate Head's prior and present court cases, State and Federal Courts cases and to the prior and present judgments and orders of the Courts and Courts relating thereto, internally and externally.

To include as applies to Strickland v. Washington and N.C. S. B. Canon 2C 7-13-1, 2, 3, N.C.G.S. 17-8, 18 U.S.C. 1201.

The court must allow the new claims, for to deny allowing same, having knowledge of the aforesaid which legally justifies, as the court knows, violates the Const. amend. aforesaid and others as applies thereto and to the Human Rights aforesaid as known by the court, prior and present. Reasons Why The New Claims, Grounds
Should Be Allowed By The Courts.

The petitioner herein was not represented by counsel prior and did not know of or understand the legal significance of the facts giving rise to the new claims, at the time of the prior petition was filed. Petitioner is and was a layman at law and has no professional training in law.

The Court must allow the new claims of petitioner for the reasons aforesaid and for the Court to deny same, having knowledge of the aforesaid which legally justifies the claims not having been presented prior, as the Court knows, would violate the laws and constitution of the United States of America and of the States thereof, and the Human Rights for which they legally apply thereto. Further would constitute Kidnapping Petitioner By Judicial Process, Processes And/or Related Thereto. 18 U.S.C. 1201 - Deprivation of Liberty Without Due Process or Equal Protection of Law, or Without Judicial Protection Afforded Against Acts, Etc. That Violated Fundamental and/or Other Rights or Privileges or Human Rights To Include To Personal Liberty and Freedom of Movement in Residence.
